FOOD & BEVERAGE

Thursdays are one of our favorite days here at AVGC. Thursdays mean dinner at the club -time to catch up with our friends and neighbors!

Since we all love our Thursday Night Dinners, we are asking you to do your AVGC staff a large favor and call ahead for seating. As many of you may have noticed- our members and guests all seem to enjoy their dinner at the same time. Since a large portion of our Thursday night crowd shows up at once, it creates a delay on service that the size of our kitchen simply can not accommodate.

We would like to encourage you to call ahead (530-269-2775 ext 15). This will allow us to let you know how long the current wait is, and mark you down for a table if you wish.

Thank you all in advance for your continued support!

-Kimmie, Daniel, & The AVGC staff

New month new rule: "Playing by the Rules": The importance of marking your ball:

Player A's tee shot heads to the right side of the fairway slightly out of view. Player A properly plays a provisional ball. Both balls are found near each other through the green. Both balls are Titleist 3s with no distinguishing markings.

Uh oh! (*see bottom of article)

The first and only sunny Thursday in April was celebrated by members and their guests at our Spring Guest Day April 27th. The weather was perfect. Chef Chris Lynch prepared a hearty breakfast with eggs, bacon, fruits and scones.

Sending the ladies off to the fairways sated and smiling. There was a fair amount of searching for balls in the spring grasses and mud, so when the ladies returned they were delighted by the buffet from Chef Daniel Cote, who served a fresh salads and pastas complete with a red sauce and a white shrimp sauce. The winning teams for the day were Linda Arndt and guests, Low Net, and the 1st place winners for Low Gross were Barbara Henson and guests, all receiving the prized sleeve of new golf balls.

Our Ladies Invitational, June 14", 15" & 16" One Team One Dream is coming together nicely. It is going to be a very special event. If you need last minute help getting a team together, let me know, several people have asked if there are openings.

LADIES GUEST PLAY ON THURSDAYS

Women golfers 18 years plus are invited to play with the Women's Club on our Thursday Play Day as a Guest. Please join us in our golf game of the week. Each Thursday we have a shot gun start time featuring a game of the day, and a closest to the pin hole. If you have time please join us after the game at the Valley View grill to socialize and of course to talk about the ever elusive game of golf. Then stay for the 2PM ladies golf clinic with PGA Phil Green. We look forward to meeting you and hope you will join us and meet some of our members and experience our beautiful course. For more information contact: Liz Chedwick at 530-269-1779, lb.auburn@gmail.com. To sign up call the Pro Shop at 530-269-1837.

May's Rule: As noted in Decision 27/11, "the player must select one of the balls, treat it as his provisional ball and abandon the other." Player A now lies 3 with the selected ball.*

CHEF'S CORNER

WHO IS THIS GUY?

Executive Chef Daniel Cote:

Auburn Valley is proud to announce we have a new Executive Chef. Daniel Cote, a Northern California native, started his culinary training by working side by side with his father at a young age. Daniel eventually went on to the California Culinary Academy in San Francisco where he graduated early and earned a job right out of school at Buchon in Yountville. Daniel then went off to work at the Village Pub, an award winning restaurant in Woodside, as well as opening Bumble in Los Altos, before heading on to work at the corporate kitchens of Apple. After a few years running some of the cafés the executive team at Apple gave him a new job to cook only for them. Now Daniel is here at Auburn Valley where he lives close by and is raising his 3 girls on a small farm to teach them about sustainable living.

Daniel will be adding some new and exciting menu items at Auburn Valley on our lunch and Thursday night dinner menus. Please come out and say hello and taste some of the great new offerings available.
